PUBLIC NOTICE: ACCREDITATION TEAM TO VISIT LOS ANGELES CITY COLLEGE

(August 30, 2022) Los Angeles – Los Angeles City College (LACC) will host a team from the Accrediting Commission for Community and Junior Colleges (ACCJC) as part of the process for reviewing and renewing college accreditation. The team will visit LACC during the week of February 27, 2023. LACC is currently accredited by the ACCJC and was last evaluated and reaffirmed in January 2018.

“The accreditation process enables us to take a closer look at what we do well for our students and community and to find areas where we can improve,” said Dr. Mary Gallagher, President, Los Angeles City College.

The ACCJC works with its member institutions to advance educational quality and student learning and achievement. The collaboration fosters institutional excellence and improvement through innovation, self-analysis, peer-review and application of standards.

As part of the accreditation reaffirmation process, the public is invited to submit comments about LACC to the accrediting body by completing a third-party comment form on the ACCJC website at <https://accjc.org/forms/third-party-comments/>. Comments must be received five weeks prior to the scheduled Commission meeting.

About Los Angeles City College

Established in 1929, Los Angeles City College is one of the oldest of the California Community Colleges. Located in the heart of Hollywood, LACC provides a dynamic innovative learning environment offering more than 100 vocational and professional programs including degrees, transfer programs and certificates to more than 18,000 students. Los Angeles City College is home to one of the most vibrant and diverse campuses in the country. The campus provides a wide range of professional and vocational programs at a fraction of the cost of other state and private colleges.
