

REALISTIC

Work entails creating, constructing, or repairing equipment, materials, or structures, as well as engaging in physical exercise or working outside. Engineering, mechanics and electronics, construction, woodworking, transportation, machine operation, agriculture, animal services, physical or manual labor, athletics, or protective services are all examples of realistic vocations.

STEM Majors

Applications Software C

Computer Technology AS

Machine Learning C

PC Technician C

Geography AST

Engineering AS

Chemistry AS

Biology AST

Geology AST

Physics AST

Visual Arts & Design

Cinema AA/AST

C Art Costume Design (Cert)

Technical Theater (Cert)

Music Technology C

Animation C

Applied Photography AA

Photojournalism C

Digital Photography C

Health Science

- Kinesiology AST
- Radiologic Technician AS
- Phlebotomy Technician C
- Dental Prosthetic Technology AS

Social Science

Admin of Justice AA/AST

Fingerprint Expert C

Investigative

Studying and researching non-living materials, living organisms, disease or other types of disability, or human behavior are all part of the job. Investigative vocations are frequently related to physical, life, medical, or social sciences and can be found in humanities, mathematics/statistics, information technology, or health care services.

STEM

Computer Science AS

Mathematics AST

Cybersecurity AS

Data Science AS

Cloud Computing C

Computer Technology AS/C

Full Stack Web Dev. C

Geography AAT

Engineering AS

Chemistry AS

Biology AST

Geology AST

Physics AST/AS

Mathematics AST/AS

Game Art & Design C

Humanities

Art History AAT

Journalism AA/AAT

Linguistics C

Philosophy AAT

Health Science

Kinesiology AST

Radiologic Technician AS

Nutrition & Dietetics AST

Dental Prosthetic Technology AS

Public Health AST

Social Science

Admin. of Justice AA

Modern Political Studies AA

Psychology AAT

Sociology AAT

Social Justice Studies AAT

Communications AAT

Economics AAT

Paralegal Studies AA

Artistic

Work entails creating visual artwork, performances, literary works, food, or music for a range of media, or applying artistic ideas to the design of diverse items and materials. Visual arts, applied arts and design, performing arts, music, creative writing, media, and culinary arts are all examples of artistic jobs. People with an interest in the artistic work may also enjoy working independently or in unstructured environments.

General Art AA

Visual Arts

Studio Arts AAT

Graphic Design AA

Arts Graphic Design C

Applied Photography AA

Cinema Directing C

Cinematography C

Animation C

Digital Photography SC

Game & Art Design C / SC

Illustration C

Photojournalism C

Performing Arts

Theater AA-T

Theater Academy Acting AA

Music AA / AAT / Several Certs

Instrumental Performer C

Technical Arts

- Cinema Production AA
- Film, TV, & Electronic Media AST
- Television Production AA / C
- Music Technology C
- Costume Design C
- Cinema Post -Production C
- Technical Theater C

Additional Majors

- English AAT
- Journalism AAT
- Languages AA / AA - T / Certificates
- Art History AA-T

- Humanities AA
- Communication Studies AAT
- Screenwriting C
- Creative Writing C
- Music Songwriting & Composition C
- Marketing - AA

Social

Work entails assisting, advising, assisting, or offering service to others. Social occupations are frequently connected with community service, health care, personal service, teaching/education, or religious activities.

Social Sciences

Psychology AAT

Sociology AAT

Human Services: Addiction Studies AA

Human Services: Generalist AA

Social Justice Studies: AAT

Afro-American Studies SC

Admin of Justice AST/AA

Child Development/Teaching

Languages (teaching/translating) AA/AAT/Cert

Early Childhood Education - AST

Child Dev AA; several certificates

Communication Studies AAT

Health Sciences

Fitness Specialist/Personal Trainer C

Kinesiology AST

Nutrition & Dietetics AST

Public Health AST

Patient Care SC

Registered Nursing AS

Biology AST (prep for medical school)

Chemistry AS (prep for medical school)

Enterprising

Work entails leading or advising people in political and legal circumstances, as well as managing, negotiating, marketing, or selling in a business setting. Business efforts, sales, marketing/advertising, finance, management/administration, professional advising, public speaking, politics, or law are all examples of enterprising vocations.

Business & Law

Accounting AA

Business Admin AST

Finance & Banking AA / C

Management AA / C

Marketing AA / C

Real Estate AA / C

Paralegal AA / C

Arts

Cinema Production AA / C

Film, TV, & Electronic Media AST

Cinema Directing C

Political Science AS-T

Modern Political Studies AA

Social Sciences

Political Science AS-T

Modern Political Studies AA

Pathway to Law School C

Conventional

Work entails adhering to processes and regulations in order to arrange information or data, usually in a corporate setting. Office work, accounting, mathematics/statistics, information technology, finance, or human resources are common traditional vocations.

STEM Majors

Applications Software C

Computer Technology C

Machine Learning C

PC Technician C

Geography AAT

Engineering AS

Chemistry AS

Biology AST

Geology AST

Physics AST

Business & Law

Real Estate AA/C

Accounting AA

Admin Office Assistant/Clerical Office Assistant AA

Business Admin. AS/AST

Finance & Banking AA/C

Paralegal Studies AA/C

Economics AAT

Fingerprint Expert C

Health Science

Radiologic Technician AS

Phlebotomy (Cert)

Dental Prosthetic Technology AS

Social Sciences & Humanities

Admin of Justice AA/AST/C

Fingerprint Expert Languages AA/AAT/C

KEY

AA/AS: Local Associate of Arts or Science Degree

AAT/AST: Associate of Arts or Science Transfer Degree

C: Certificate of Achievement

