College StudiesCOLLEGE 101-Navigating Your Path Through College to Career (UC/CSU) - 1 Unit

College success is strongly predicted by a student's sense of belonging, confidence as a learner, and work towards personally meaningful goals. This course aims to promote growth in all three of these areas. Students will explore career pathways and develop community with faculty and peers who share their academic interests. Students will identify their college readiness strengths and needs, explore relevant campus services, and practice essential academic skills to expand their personal tool-kit for academic success. Assignments and activities will develop critical thinking, communication, research, information literacy, and study skills in ways that integrate the student's career and academic interests and apply across general education disciplines.

This course encourages students to read literature from the perspective of filmmakers whose intent is to adapt it for the screen, as well as filmmakers who have an artistic vision or a story to explore as an original screenplay. By so doing, students hone their close reading skills on written and cinematic texts. They compare and contrast the elements of literature in both genres; including theme (ideology), story (plot), narration (narratology), point of view, characterization, dialogue, setting, scene descriptions (mise en scene, imagery, symbolism, tone) and editing. The first half of the course focuses on literature 'and' film, the second on film 'as' literature.
